SUBJECT: Uvalde, Texas

Like everyone else, I've been trying to process the events in Uvalde, Texas, since yesterday. My heart is broken for these students, these school employees, their families, and everyone else who has been impacted by this horrible situation. As a university, our hearts are with the families who are most in need of love right now.

It will take time for this community to heal. I encourage everyone to show some additional compassion and empathy as we all work through this grief process together. The Aggie Health and Wellness Center provides counseling services, should those be needed.
