SUBJECT: Happy Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving is an opportunity for each of us to pause, to spend time with those we care about and to give thanks for what we have. This week, it only seems fitting to give thanks to the people who work hard each day to make NMSU a better university.

We want to thank all of our employees, from those who clean our classrooms and mow the lawns, to those who advise our students and man our emergency responses, and to those who teach our courses and conduct important research. It takes everyone to make this university what it is, to help our students and the communities we serve.

Families play an important role in most holiday celebrations. At NMSU, we're all part of a larger university family, working together for a better tomorrow. We simply can't thank everyone enough. Thank you, and please enjoy your Thanksgiving Day.
