SUBJECT: 2016 Employee Compensation and Benefits Statement

We are again pleased to provide a summary to our employees outlining the total value of the compensation packages and the benefits employees receive for working at NMSU. Initially, this was an initiative suggested by our Board of Regents in 2015.

Your personalized compensation and benefit statement for the 2016 calendar year is now available by logging into MyNMSU. Current employees who had earnings in 2016 will receive the statement. If you have any questions, please e-mail them to benefits@nmsu.edu.

As always, we appreciate your hard work. Thank you for everything you do to make this a great university and a caring community that transforms lives through discovery.
